

Captain Joey Mayeaux is a FBI National Academy graduate with over over 29 years of law enforcement service. For the past 25 years he has served in the Ascension Parish Sheriff's Office rising from the rank of deputy to being named Captain of the East Patrol in 2013. In this position, he leads over 100 people in the Patrol, Traffic, and School Security Officers divisions. He is responsible for policy-making and implementation in his divisions. Captain Mayeaux's experience includes working undercover operations in the Narcotics Division and leadership positions in the Patrol Division. He is responsible for the operation Field Training Officer program, which is a four month training program where new deputies receive additional training and final evaluation before being allowed to serve independently. Captain Mayeaux created, wrote, and managed a federal grant, which funded the Street Crimes team for nine years. This unit targeted the eradication of street-level narcotics in Ascension Parish. Additionally, he was a member of the Crisis Response Team (SWAT) with the primary role of team sniper and entry team member. Captain Mayeaux also created and ran the APSO Go Team, which was a small unit used for special assignments, including high risk warrants, security for high risk court cases, surveillance teams, and targeted narcotics operations. He has extensive training experience including assisting in running and managing the Ascension Parish Sheriff's Office Training Facility. His certifications include POST/FBI Firearms instructor, PRISM instructor and a chemical weapons instructor. Captain Mayeaux began his career with the East Baton Rouge Sheriff's Office and worked for the Louisiana State University Police. He is a Louisiana POST Academy graduate and a completed four years in the United States Marine Corp where he held the position of Platoon Sergeant. He is a former Assistant Scout Master for the Boy Scouts of America and serves in his local church. Captain Mayeaux and his wife are the proud parents of two daughters, including a Ragin' Cajun freshman.
